In this case, the Federation will still need to pay the deposit fees. If there is neither a bid nor interest to organise a competition, EVE and FIDE Council shall decide how to proceed with the tournament.
- 2.8 If a bid does not satisfy the minimum requirements set by FIDE, the Council shall authorize EVE to announce a new bidding procedure or to conduct direct negotiations with the interested parties to co-organize the event under direct FIDE management.

Recommendations on these further sanctions shall be made by EVE.
- 2.12 EVE is entitled to recommend to the FIDE Council to take strict measures against organisers that may already have received the right to organize a FIDE event but subsequently:

- Do not make timely payments for their staff

The following measures may be enforced by the FIDE Council against the above-mentioned organizers:

- Suspend the organizers from participating in the next bidding process or give less priority to their bid
- Don't count or cancel after tournament points.
- Revoke already granted tournaments
- Downgrade the organizers official title
- Disqualify from organizing FIDE events for up to 5 years.

In this case, FIDE approves the final refund amount for all such players, and this amount is mandatory for the organizer. The organizer has the right to submit its arguments on this issue to FIDE before making a final decision.
- 3.10 If a person withdraws under the provisions of Articles 3.9.2 – 3.9.4, and the Federation is able to replace the person to take their room allocation, then the
